Hartford, Sept. 9.-Joseph Merriman, who died in East Hartford last Saturas well as one of the most highly escemed and wealthiest. He was nearly the West Indian trade, and was lost at sea on the way home from British Guiana. When Joseph Merriman began to work he received $25 yearly and "found" ed his employer's stock and notes, and remained in business for over thirtynine years. He was a member of the the proprietors, which have been prom first board of directors of the Phoenix Insurance company and in 1859 was chosen president of the bridge company. He was also a director of the Aetna National bank.

Mr. Merriman was a republican in polities, beginning his political career forty years ago. He took an active part in the Frement campaign in 1856, and in 1857 was elected a member of the house of representatives from East Hartford. The Hon. Eliphalet A. Bulkeley of this city, father of ex-Governor Morgan G. Bulkeley and General William H. Bulkeley, was speaker that year, and Mr. Merriman's colleagues included Judge Nathaniel Shipman, ex-Governor Chas. R. Ingersoll of New Haven, ex-Speaker Charles H. ROOF GARDEN CONCERT.

The Hotel Majestic Will Give a Musica Dinner and Loof Garden Concert Every Thursday Evening for the Guests of the House-Music From 6 to 10:30 p. m .-Dinner From 6 to 9.

This already famous and palatial house have had many concerts, and since opening hold one every Thursday evening. These concerts are strictly for the guests of the house. Many of our best citizens take lunch or dinner at the house and some of them have been anxious to know if they are to be classified as guests. The manager, when asked this question, said: "Every person is a guest of the house who registers and eats or sleeps in the house, no matter whether one meal or one night or more; therefore all those whose names appear on the register previous to each concert would be entitled to one ticket admitting one person, but not transferable. Many have asked me if it would be aceptable to get up a small party of six or eight for the musical
